

NAA VISION

The Naval Attachés Association (NAA) shall be recognized by governmental and non-governmental institutions and by NAA members as a high performing, relevant and engaged association that enhances mutual understanding on international maritime security affairs and fosters relationships.

NAA MISSION

The NAA will foster strong relationships among its membership and their families, and with US Department of Defense's sea services, and other relevant US Government and non-Government agencies through an active program of engagements. The program will be developed by the Board of Directors, endorsed during the Annual General Meeting and it will contribute to collaborative development and shared understanding of contemporaneous international maritime security issues.
